

How to navigate the Faculty of Protestant Theology of the University of Bonn

Welcome!

As the Faculty of Protestant Theology, we would like to warmly welcome you as an international scholar at the University of Bonn. We are honoured to have you with us and look forward to research together and exchanging ideas.

To give you the best possible start, we have collected some information about:

- Who can I contact if I have questions?
- Where can I find what I am looking for?
- Which researchers and lecturers can I meet at the faculty?

Get to know the Faculty

After the founding of the University of Bonn by the Prussian King Friedrich Wilhelm III in 1818, the Faculty of Protestant Theology came into being one year later in 1819.

The faculty offers research and academic studies in Old Testament, New Testament, Church History, Systematic Theology (Dogmatics and Ethics), Practical Theology (incl. Religious Education), and Intercultural Theology.

The Institute for Hermeneutics, The Ecumenical Institute, The Protestant Institute for Religious Education of Bonn, and The Center for Religion and Society set further interdisciplinary focuses.

However, all of our work in Bonn is interdisciplinary oriented and internationally networked. Academics and students from all over the world teach, learn and research at the faculty. They work together in international research projects, publish internationally and aim to shape society and religious life.

Who can I contact if I have questions?

Dean and Dean's Office

The Faculty of Protestant Theology is headed by the Dean, who is supported by three Vice-Deans and the Faculty Council as the representation of the members of the faculty. The Dean leads and represents the faculty.

Currently, the Dean of the faculty is Prof. Dr. Hermut Löhr (etfdekan@uni-bonn.de), Vice-Deans are Prof. Dr. Markus Saur, Prof. Dr. Jan Dietrich and Dr. Eike Kohler (eikekohler@uni-bonn.de) as Dean of Studies.

For the rest of the team kindly see: www.etf.uni-bonn.de/en/faculty/deans-office. You can contact the Dean's Office with all topics concerning the faculty as a whole: dekanat@ev-theol.uni-bonn.de

Commissioner for International Affairs

The International Relations Commissioner looks forward to meeting you as well: Prof. Dr. Matthias Braun, in administrative matters supported by Daniela Langen. Kindly contact us via mail: etf.international@uni-bonn.de

Dean of Studies and Team

The office of the Dean of Studies is headed by the Dean of Studies, Dr. Eike Kohler. The team offers student advising and information on examination matters: studium@ev-theol.uni-bonn.de

Examination Office

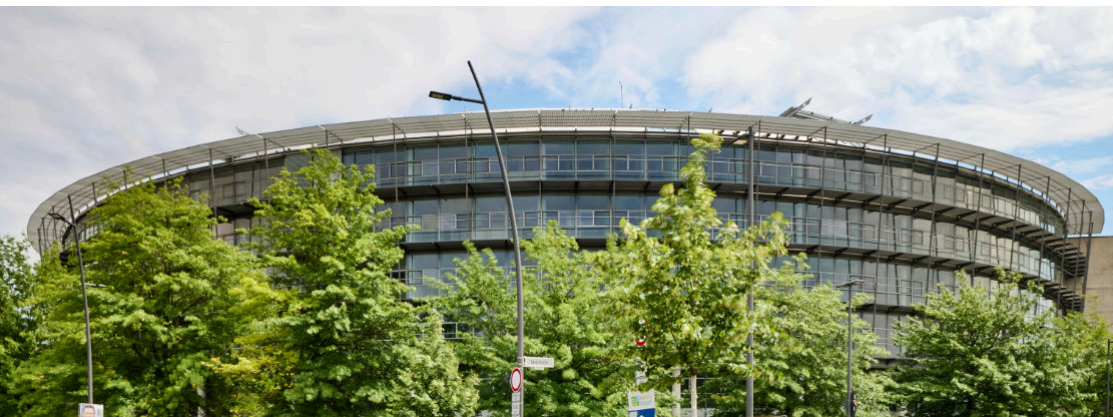

The Examination Office is responsible for the administration of examination procedures, alongside the examination boards of the degree programs. Contact person is Ilona Schimmel: pruefungsamt@ev-theol.uni-bonn.de

IT Support

IT questions may best be addressed to your contact person in the department or directly to the faculty's IT support team: localsupportetf@uni-bonn.de.

Equal Opportunities Commissioners

There are two Gender Equality Commissioners at the faculty to support the work of the University's Commissioners: gleichstellung@ev-theol.uni-bonn.de

Where can I find what I am looking for?

Rabinstraße

In the building “Rabinstraße 8” you will find the Dean’s Office (5th floor) and Examination Office (3rd floor) as well as most of the department members of the faculty (also 3rd floor). The building is a 10 min walk from the main train station (follow the tracks on the left as you look towards the city).

An der Schlosskirche

Other faculty members have their offices in the building “An der Schlosskirche 2-4”, where the Student Association can be found as well. It is located next to the famous yellow main building, a 10 min walk from the main train station in the direction of the city.

Am Hofgarten

The building “Am Hofgarten 8” is hosting our research hub with researchers and projects mostly working on contemporary questions. You can find it next to the Hofgarten lawn, also a 10 min walk from the main train station in the direction of the city. Since it is not freely accessible, make sure to call or email in advance.

Schlosskirche

The Schlosskirche (University Church) was built at the end of the 17th Century and is being used for worship: www.etf.uni-bonn.de/en/schlosskirche. It is located next to the building “An der Schlosskirche 2-4”. In addition to Sunday morning services, the church is open on weekdays at lunchtime.

Library of Protestant and Catholic Theology

The theological library can be found in the building “An der Schlosskirche 2-4”. It offers a stock of approximately 190,000 titles, including journal subscriptions.

University and State Library

The “ULB” provides more than 2.25 million volumes, including 5,500 current print journals: www.ulb.uni-bonn.de/en. The address is “Adenauerallee 39-41”.

Who can I meet at the faculty?

People

You can find contact details of all faculty members on our website in alphabetical order: www.etf.uni-bonn.de/de/personen/personen-people

Department members

An overview of the departments’ members can be found on the team websites of the departments: www.etf.uni-bonn.de/en/faculty

Project members

If you are looking for a specific person from a third-party funded project, kindly see here: www.etf.uni-bonn.de/en/faculty/third-party-funded-projects

Institute members

If you would like to get an overview of the members of our institute teams, please visit the following website: www.etf.uni-bonn.de/en/faculty/institutes

Centre for Religion and Society

The “ZERG” is an inter-faculty institution that aims to bundle the excellence already existing at the University of Bonn: www.zerg.uni-bonn.de

Student Association

The Student Association represents the interests of all students of the Faculty of Protestant Theology: www.etf.uni-bonn.de/en/student-association

University of Bonn
Faculty of Protestant Theology
Office for International Relations
Rabinstraße 8
53111 Bonn